

Google Maps satellite image showing the proposed location for the interpretation panel on the North Wall of the West Gate entrance, and the church's West door. Map below shows the position of the church and West entrance wall in relation to the town.

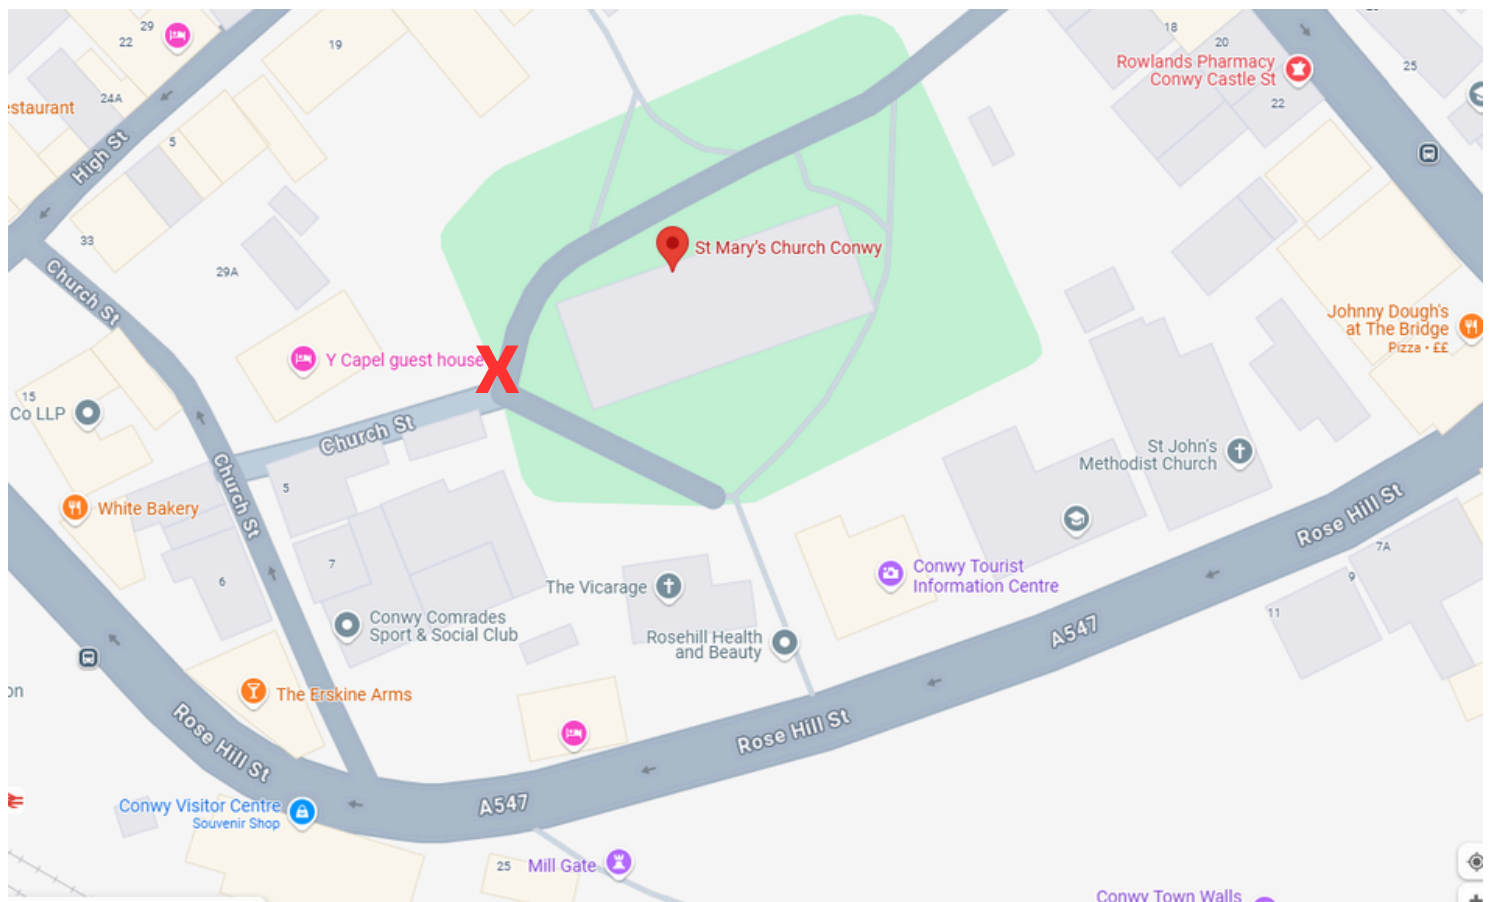

Image of proposed wall location for interpretation board at the West gate entrance to the churchyard