Mynwent St Agnes Cemetery

Dymchwelwyd yr eglwys 1875 haearn yn 1972 ac fe gafodd y fynwent ei hesgeuluso.

The iron Church of St Agnes 1875 was demolished in 1972 and the cemetery was left neglected.

Roedd llawer o'r beddau yn y rhan wreiddiol o'r fynwent wedi'u cuddio gan ddail trwchus tan 2014, pan ddechreuwyd gwaith gan wirfoddolwyr i adfer yr ardal. Mae'r fynwent bellach yn llawn blodau'r gwanwyn a fflora a ffawna yr haf, sy'n ei gwneud yn ardal werdd ddymunol iawn i dreulio amser ynddi.

Most of the graves in the original section of the cemetery were hidden by dense foliage until 2014, when work was started by volunteers to restore the area. The cemetery is now awash with spring flowers and summer flora and fauna, making it a very pleasant green area to spend time in.

Cynhaliwyd arolwg o fywyd gwyllt gan Ymddiriedolaeth Natur Gogledd Cymru a darganfuwyd dros 200 o rywogaethau o fflora a ffawna, gan gynnwys dros 50 rhywogaeth o wyfynod.

A wildlife survey was undertaken by the North Wales Wildlife Trust and found over 200 species of flora and fauna including over 50 species of moths.

John Dawson Watson
1832-1892
Arlunydd Artist

Bu John Dawson Watson, a gladdwyd yma, yn byw am beth amser cyn ei farwolaeth yng ngwesty'r Castell, Conwy, ac mae'n bosibl ei fod wedi paentio lluniau yn y gwesty yn lle rhent.

John Dawson Watson, buried here, lived for some time before his death in the Castle Hotel, Conwy, and may have painted pictures in the hotel in lieu of rent.

Mae 8 o Feddau Rhyfel y Gymanwlad yn y fynwent, ac ar Sul y Cofio ym mis Tachwedd 2018, cynhaliwyd gwasanaeth i goffáu'r rhai a syrthiodd union gan mlynedd ers diwedd y Rhyfel Byd Cyntaf. Gelwid y Caniad Olaf, a gosodwyd torchau ar y beddau a adferwyd.

There are 8 Commonwealth War Graves in the cemetery, and on Remembrance Sunday Nov 2018, a service was held to commemorate the fallen on the 100th anniversary of the end of the 1st World War. The Last Post was called, and wreaths were laid on the restored war graves.

Mae Ffrindiau Mynwent Santes Agnes yn dal i weithio yma, ac maen nhw wedi cynhyrchu dwy daflen – ar gyfer y beddau rhyfel a'r beddau sydd o ddiddordeb hanesyddol – gweler isod.
